Special Clubbing Offer

By Special Arrangement We Offer You
The Hopkinsville Kentuckian
AND
The Nashville Banner
Both One Year For Only

$4.50

This is an unusually liberal offer, and you should take advantage of it without delay. The Hopkinsville Kentuckian will give you all the home and local news and the Banner will give you all the foreign and general news.

This is the reading reason, and everybody who wants to keep up with the times must have reliable, high-class newspapers.

Trial order of The Banner one month 25c. This rate is not good in towns where The Banner is delivered at 10c per week. Also at points outside of Tennessee, North Alabama and Southern Kentucky the rate is 50c per month or $5.00 per year.

Beautiful Bust and Shoulders are possible if you will wear a scientifically constructed Bien Jolie Brassiere. The dragging weight of an unconfined bust so stretches the supporting muscles that the contour of the figure is spoiled.

BIEN JOLIE
THE AN-TO-SEE
BRASSIERES

put the bust back where it belongs, prevent the full bust from having the appearance of flabbiness, eliminate the danger of dragging muscles and confine the flesh of the shoulder giving a graceful line to the entire upper body.

They are the daintiest and most serviceable garments imaginable—come in all materials and styles: Cross Back, Hook Front, Surplice, Bandeau, etc. Basted with "Walsh," the prettiest boning—permitting washing without removal. Have your dealer show you Bien Jolie Brassieres, if not stocked, we will gladly send him, prepaid samples to show you.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL.

Mrs. X.—Do you have any trouble in getting a cook?
Mrs. Y.—Oh, no; I've got as many as ten in one month.

HOW TO RESTORE PEACE.

Briggs—How did you come out in that quarrel with your wife?
Griggs—As usual. I apologized for being right.

CAPTURING THE OYSTER.

First Lawyer—Can't we settle this case out of court for our clients?
Second Ditto—Oh, yes; you get the property and we'll divide.

STRANGE.

"Strange things happen in life."
"Indeed. I even know a man who actually thinks his landlord is a fine fellow."

NOT MUCH.

"Are butchers amenable to the anti-gambling laws?"
"How could they be?"
"For handling the steaks."

FEW HAVE IT TO THIS EXTENT.

"Pa, what is business tact?"
"Knowing the cash customer just as well as you know one that runs up a bill every month."

Tinfoil, though made of almost pure tin, never rusts.

Every Month Near Death.

Foster, Ark.—Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of Foster, says: "I was sick for seven years, and half the time could not stand on my feet. Every month I was very near death. I tried Cardui, and in two months, I was cured and am now stout and healthy. My friends all ask me how what cured me. My looks are a testimonial to Cardui." No matter how serious or long standing the trouble, Cardui will help you. It is a mild, yet able, tonic remedy, a apted especially to relieve and cure the common womanly ailments. It relieves womanly pains and restores a womanly strength. Try Cardui.—Advertisement.

Then and Now.

By a strange turn of fate the positions of the contending factions which will struggle for supremacy at the coming Democratic State Convention are exactly reversed as to what they were in 1912. Then Congressman A. O. Stanley and Senator-elect Ollie M. James were the "outs" and went down in defeat before the Beckham-Haly-Rhea-Vansant crowd, the "ins" strongly intrenched behind the State Administration. This time the shoe is on the other foot and it is Gov. Stanley and Senator James, who are the "ins" and backed by all the power and influence of the State Administration, while those who "put it over" on them in the 1912 convention are classed as "down-and-outers." On political "form" and the shift in conditions, well-informed "dopesters" can guess out but one result to the coming party fight.—Louisville Times.

Judge Gholson Appointed.

Gov. Rye has commissioned A. R. Gholson of Montgomery county and the Clarksville bar to sit on the Tennessee supreme bench in the place of Special Judge F. T. Fancher, who retired to resume his law practice at Sparta and to look after some pressing personal business. Judge Fancher, it will be recalled had been sitting on the supreme bench for some time in the place of Justice Lansden, temporarily retired on account of ill health.

Judge Gholson is well-known at the bar and in state politics. He is a farmer in Montgomery county, as well as a lawyer at the Clarksville bar and has long been identified with the public life of the state.

His Only Preventive.

Artist (to model he has just picked up in the street)—A man I had up here the other day stole two pounds when my back was turned. Would you do a thing like that?
Model—Oh, no, sir, I haven't the speed.—London Punch.

Vanished Value.

"You can't get something for nothing," said the ready-made philosopher.
"Somebody did," exclaimed Mr. Chuggins. "The automobile I bought day before yesterday wouldn't bring half its price if I sold it today."

Youth and Old Age.

My little niece Gracie was sitting on grandmother's lap. As she was rocking to and fro baby kept staring into her face, and after a few minutes of silence she said: "Grandma, you aren't so very new, are you?"—Chicago Tribune.

ASKS ENGLAND TO ECONOMIZE

The Standard of Living at Present is Much Too High, Says Lloyd-George.

During the budget debate the chancellor of the exchequer returned to the point which he made with great force the other day—the vital necessity that the people of this country should put by their savings for the demands which will be made upon them later.

Hundreds of millions will be wanted to finance the war. There is no chance of getting enough revenue by merely taxing the rich. The nation's savings will be indispensable for the coming loans. Saving, therefore, is not a question of meanness but of patriotism, and the time has come for a return to the old system of simple living. Better face it at once, said the chancellor. The standard has been steadily going up. It will have to come down.

"Plain living and high thinking are no more," wrote Wordsworth in 1802 in a famous sonnet. Mr. Lloyd-George said nothing of high thinking, but he earnestly begged the nation to be wise in time, to return to plain living, to realize that the glittering prosperity of the moment was purely artificial, and to be sure that a period of collapse would most certainly and inevitably come.—London Telegraph.

BEWARE THAT POWDER PUFF!

It May Give You Lumbago, Appendicitis, or the Pips, Says a Philadelphia Physician.

More trouble in store for the summer girl! They've made her the butt of all sorts of jokes, patrolled the beach and park with cops, regulated the size and style of her bathing suit—and now she mustn't borrow a powder puff.

Doctor Ziegler, of the department of health and charities, says so. It's insubstantial and might spread all sorts of diseases, including lumbago, appendicitis and pips. Inasmuch as the average summer girl would rather have all three of these ailments than a shiny nose, the advice probably will go unheeded.

Nevertheless, Doctor Ziegler places the borrowed powder puff with the common drinking cup, the common towel and the common bathtub in the category of "summer hotel evils to be avoided." He treats of them in a bulletin to vacationists about to leave the city.—Philadelphia North American.

AN ELABORATE SYSTEM.

"You're managing to wake up earlier this morning."
"Yes, I've just bought a parrot."
"Instead of an alarm clock?"
"I already had an alarm clock, but I got so I didn't pay any attention to it. Now I hang the parrot's cage in my room, and put the alarm clock under it. When the alarm goes off it startles the parrot and what that bird says would wake anybody up."

JUDGED BY SOME PASSENGERS.

"Step lively, please," said the conductor.
"Say, what do you think this is?" asked the grouchy person. "A tango parlor?"
"No," answered the conductor briefly, "but there are times when I think it must be a cattle car."

PRETENSIONS.

"Doctor Bragg has been telling of some swell patients he has had lately."
"I know. They're a family down with the mumps."

PHYSICIAN'S FRIEND.

The Lady—Are you fond of lobster salad, doctor?
Doctor—No, I'm not fond of it but I'm very grateful to it.—Life.

IT ALWAYS IS.

Sympathizing Friend—Didn't you find it hard to lose all your money?
Hardup—No; easiest thing in the world.—Town Topics.

MORE MODERN.

Wedding Guest—The bride is of old Puritan stock, I understand?
Second Wedding Guest—Puritan stock? Union Pacific.

A REPEATER.

Wife—What shall I give Bella for a wedding present?
Husband—Oh, same as we gave her the other times.—Judge.
